

James S. Beall, Esq.

Partner

Willig, Williams & Davidson Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

James S. Beall is a partner in the law firm of Willig, Williams & Davidson in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He specializes in employee benefits law for the firm's joint labor-management retirement, welfare, training plan and labor union clients. Beall represents working people in the airline, construction, food and beverage, government, health care, maritime and transportation industries. He served as a note editor of the Michigan Law Review and published two pieces of his own in that publication. Beall clerked for Gerald E. Rosen, a federal district court judge in Detroit, Michigan, in 1993-1994 before joining Willig, Williams & Davidson in 1995. Beall is a frequent lecturer at employee benefit seminars sponsored by the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans. He also has appeared in The Best Lawyers in America, Pennsylvania Super Lawyers and Martindale-Hubbell (AV Rating). He earned his law degree from the University of Michigan and a master's degree in tax law from Villanova University.