

Lisa C. Chamzuk
Partner
Lawson Lundell LLP
Vancouver, British Columbia

Lisa C. Chamzuk practices exclusively in the area of pension and employee benefits, representing boards of trustees and corporate plan sponsors in both the public and private sectors and in a wide variety of industries. She regularly advises boards of trustees and other sponsors of pension and employee benefit plans in respect of the interpretation and amendment of plan texts, the application of the governing legal principles, and provincial and federal legislation, including pension standards legislation, tax law and privacy law. Lisa also provides support to litigators engaged in complex pension and employee benefit litigation and provides litigation risk assessment and management services to her clients. She is the Chair of the Canadian Legal/Legislative and Public Sector Committee, and a member of the Canadian Board and the Canadian Strategic and Program Planning Committee of the International Foundation.
