

Thomas P. DeRoche

Director, Educational Programs
International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans
Brookfield, Wisconsin

Thomas P. DeRoche is the director of educational programs for the International Foundation of Employee Benefit Plans in Brookfield, Wisconsin. He is responsible for the development, design and program management of employee benefits–related conferences and courses, including the Trustees and Administrators Institutes; Washington Legislative Update; and the Institute for Apprenticeship, Training and Education Programs. DeRoche serves as staff advisor to the Foundation’s Government Liaison Committee and the Apprenticeship, Training and Education Committee. He has also served as staff advisor to the Trustees Committee and the Administrators Committee. DeRoche coordinates onsite contract education and training programs for outside organizations. He led the Foundation apprenticeship and workforce development initiative, the initial rollout of the Foundation retirement security initiative and the internal staff council on partnerships. Previously, DeRoche held management positions in hospitality, financial services and higher education. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from Marquette University.