

Michael D. Joyce, CEBS

Senior Vice President, Senior Investment Consultant
Segal Marco Advisors
Boston, Massachusetts

Michael D. Joyce serves as senior vice president and senior investment consultant for Segal Marco Advisors in Boston, Massachusetts. He consults primarily with jointly trustee pension, annuity, welfare and other benefit plans in addition to public and single employer plans. Joyce is responsible for advising, consulting and providing discretionary services to clients on a full range of issues. This includes asset allocation, manager and provider selection and review, corporate governance, compliance and fiduciary issues, performance measurement, custodial selection and liability analysis. A principal of the firm, he is a member of the firm's management committee, alpha manager review committee (AMRC) and discretionary management committee and is responsible for oversight of the firm's market groups. Joyce was previously a partner with Murphy, Hesse, Toomey & Lehane in Quincy, Massachusetts in its employee benefits practice group, serving as counsel to Taft-Hartley, public and corporate benefit plans as well as commercial real estate support. He has earned the Certified Employee Benefit Specialist® (CEBS®) designation, and he is a Gold Member of the International Society of Certified Employee Benefit Specialists (ISCEBS), a Past President of the ISCEBS Governing Council and CEBS Compliant. Joyce is a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association, is on the board of several nonprofit organizations and recently served as a director on the Notre Dame Alumni Board. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame and Suffolk University Law School.