

Russell D. Kamp

Managing Director and Senior Fixed Income Manager
Ryan ALM
Midland Park, New Jersey

Russell D. Kamp is the managing director and senior fixed income manager for Ryan ALM, where he is primarily responsible for sales, marketing and client service. Kamp has 41 years of experience in the retirement industry. Prior to joining Ryan ALM, he was the managing partner for Kamp Consulting Solutions (KCS), a full-retainer asset and liability consulting firm focused on providing services to defined benefit and defined contribution plans, endowments and foundations. Kamp is a passionate advocate for pension reform and legislative efforts in Washington, D.C., frequently writing and speaking on the subject. Prior to launching KCS, he was a senior vice president and director, asset management, for Two Sigma Investments, where he helped launch a long-only business. Before joining Two Sigma, Kamp was chief executive officer of Invesco Quantitative Strategies Group (IQS). IQS was a quantitatively oriented equity, alternative and global macro investment group that managed more than $30 billion for institutional clients. He began his career as an analyst for Janney Montgomery Scott's Investment Management Control division, an asset consulting firm that was later acquired by Evaluation Associates, Inc., where he became a senior vice president, senior consultant and partner, serving the defined benefit community. Kamp earned his bachelor of science degree in business from Fordham University.
